

AFTERNOON TEA

British Afternoon Tea originated when Anna the Seventh, Duchess of Bedford, experienced what she called a 'sinking feeling' in the middle of the afternoon due to a long gap between light luncheon and her evening meal. To relieve her hunger pangs she asked her maid to bring her a pot of tea and a little light refreshment. She enjoyed this ritual so much she began to invite her friends over for tea and gossip about the latest scandals. Soon all of London was indulging in afternoon tea, as you can too!

By late Victorian era, Afternoon tea fulfilled the purpose of socializing, event planning, introductions and informal business meetings. Our origins date back to the Victorian era and invite you to follow in these footsteps and indulge your sense of fantasy with our Afternoon Tea choices.
